Arora: Ending harassment of common man my top priority

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SANGRUR, JULY 8

Punjab minister Aman Arora got a rousing welcome at Bhawanigarh and Sunam from area residents today. While interacting with residents, Arora said ending harassment of the people would be his top priority.

"Today I have attended meeting of the Housing and Urban Development Department and understood many important things. The meeting of Public Relations and Renewal Energy departments would be held on Monday. In next 10 days, I and officers concerned would prepare a blue print for all three departments," said Arora.

CHANDIGARH: The housing and urban development minister, Aman Arora on Friday said the Punjab government led by chief minister Bhagwant Mann is fully committed to providing all citizen-centric services to the people living in urban areas of the state with emphasis on transparency and accountability factors.

Chairing the first meeting of officials at PUDA Bhawan, Arora took stock of the ongoing projects as well as those in the pipeline and directed the officers to work diligently with a view to ensuring futuristic and planned development.

He said that clean, devoid of corrupt practices and an accountable administration would be the hallmark of the Punjab government.

Directing the officers to formulate pro-people policy framework, the minister also emphasised that the current projects and the schemes must be completed on time with people getting the services in a time-bound manner.

Assuring that the harassment of the urban area residents in government offices would be a thing of the past, the minister cautioned that those indulging in corrupt ways and means would not be spared at all.
